The First Edition

Sweet Salvation

Hello & Welcome to my first newsletter, I am so excited to have it finally going out! A big thank you, to you, for subscribing to what I promised to be an amazing monthly newsletter, and here it is... My first one ever!

After a very busy and recent launch of my website and blog, I thought this newsletter will never make out in time, but... God has had his hands in it and it has all worked out perfectly. The launch has definitely exceeded my expectations, and I am so thankful that it is off to an incredible start.

So since this is my first newsletter, I have decided to dedicate this first edition to all things 'first'... I decided I will be looking back to my first days with Christ. I'll be taking you through a look at my salvation story, some powerful scriptures as well as some of my all time favourite praise & worship tunes, plus much more... Please feel free to email me your comments or if you have any suggestions, I need all the feedback I can get...

My Salvation Story

BECOMING ME

Becoming Me was my very first blog post. It is an account of my salvation story and since being released it has had a phenomenal response, making it the number one post read on the site. Written on a Saturday night in an atmosphere of worship, I literally poured my heart out in this post. I hope you can be as touched by it...

MY FIRST PLAYLIST

When I initially gave my heart to the Lord, Praise & Worship became a big part of my life, I spent many hours getting to know Jesus through worship and I just loved being in His presence. These are some of the songs I first heard, learnt and had constantly on repeat. Songs which brought Healing to my Soul and Food to my Spirit. These are my top 20 songs which to this day I immensely treasure...

WORDS OF LIFE

Scripture quickly becomes the most important part of any new Christians walk with Christ. In those first months I spent hours reading and studying the Word, learning as much as I could. The scriptures found on this Pinterest board are the very words that brought me back to life. Scriptures which gave me a different perspective and a new way of looking at life.

NEW DAY NEW YOU

It's so important how you spend those first thoughts of your day - spending just even a few minutes every morning with God is your opportunity to get off on the right foot and set a positive tone. New Day, New You gives you that opportunity. Before you take on the challenges that life may bring, start each day with encouragement and strength. Become the new you that each new day can bring!
